

The British
Horse
Society

Road safety evening

with The British Horse Society and North Yorkshire Police

Wednesday 4 October 2017, starting at 7.30pm

Venue: Leeming Bar Motel, Great North Road, Leeming Bar,
Bedale. DL8 1DT (Courtyard Two Conference Room)

Do you ride your horse on the road? If so do you know your rights, responsibilities and the law? BHS Yorkshire and North Yorkshire Police are inviting horse owners and riders to come along to hear from the experts about the Law when riding on the road.

Expert speakers include BHS Director of Safety Alan Hiscox, Traffic Constable Zoe Billings and Cathryn Godfrey Associate Solicitor from Irwin Mitchell LLP.

The talk will begin at 7.30 pm promptly spaces are limited so please book in advance. Tickets are £3 and include a BHS Hi Vis tabard. For further information and to reserve tickets (payment on the door) please email:
alisonharris7stray@gmail.com

North Yorkshire Police will also be offering a tack marking service so please bring along any items of leather tack you would like marking using our DotPeen property marking machine.

